

50 Bed Extended Care Unit, Our Lady's Hospice, Harold's Cross, Dublin

Construction of a mainly single storey 50 bed hospice (2,726m²). The works involve reinforced concrete strip foundations, insitu concrete floors, steel trusses, timber rafters and tiled pitched roofing system, brickwork, windows and feature rooflights. Works also include extensive phased enabling works to facilitate building works.

Client	Our Lady's Hospice Limited
Architect	John L Griffith & Partners
Value	€10,175,000
Contract Period	78 weeks