

Galloway Community Hospital Stranraer

The two-storey brick clad building (9,400m²) with concrete floor slab, precast concrete suspended slabs to first floor and timber truss roof with concrete tiles will provide an Accident and Emergency unit, a renal service, an enhanced palliative care unit, operating theatres and wards.

Client	Dumfries & Galloway Health Board
Architect	Robert Potter and Partners
Consulting Engineer	Hodgins Smith Partnership
M&E Consulting Engineer	Harley Haddow Partnership
Quantity Surveyor	McGowan Miller Partnership
Value	£8,247,000
Contract Period	88 weeks