

The Metro Building
6-9 Donegall Square South, Belfast

An eight-storey concrete frame office block with two floors of basement car parking. The building (9,700m²), on a prominent city centre site, is clad in Portland stone and curtain walling and included the creation of an entrance lobby/reception area and fit out of ground floor into open-plan office space.

Client	Linders of Smithfield, Dublin
Architect	Building Design Partnership
Value	£7,590,000
Contract Period	15 months